Mickey Mouse and his friends are back! Disney Live! Mickey’s Music Festival will return to the UAE for a four-day run starting April 6 at the Dubai World Trade Centre. Featuring the entire gang including Minnie Mouse, Donald Duck, Goofy, the interactive show will see 25 well-known characters performing songs from some of best known Disney blockbusters — from Aladdin to The Little Mermaid and Toy Story. The show opened in Abu Dhabi in 2014.

“One song can touch millions of people around the world and Disney has been at the beat of this concept for years by making music a main ingredient of storytelling,” said Kenneth Feld the CEO of Feld Entertainment, producer of the show. “In Disney Live! Mickey’s Music Festival we are celebrating with the Disney characters to a soundtrack of the latest sounds and chart-topping hits. We want our guests to walk away with lasting memories and singing these unforgettable melodies long after they leave the show.”

And it’s not just the performances. There will also be acrobats, flying carpets and underwater themes, organisers said.

Tickets are priced Dh175 (Bronze), Dh275 (Silver), Dh375 (Gold), Dh975 (VIP) and Dh1,375 (Royal). They are available on platinumlist.net
